

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Policy Advisor

Commissioner Gregory B. Jaczko of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) is seeking candidates to serve as a Policy Advisor. The NRC is responsible for licensing and regulating the Nation's civilian use of nuclear materials to ensure adequate protection of public health and safety, promote the common defense and security, and protect the environment.

Brief Description of Duties

Serves as an advisor and personal representative of the Commissioner on a diverse range of sensitive and complex technical and regulatory issues. Provides confidential policy advice, counsel, and assistance to the Commissioner with wide-ranging responsibility for matters associated with NRC's programs.

Qualifications

Extensive experience monitoring and analyzing large volumes of diverse information and presenting it in a clear and concise manner to senior officials. Advanced oral and written communication skills with the ability to effectively convey complex technical and policy information to Commissioners and their staffs, senior agency management, and representatives of other organizations. Highly developed interpersonal and negotiation skills with the ability to reach consensus when presented with conflicting views and objectives. Knowledge of NRC's mission and programs and a background in science or engineering.

Appointment Information

This is a full-time, limited term appointment. Salary range: $107,521 - $152,000. Duty station is Rockville, Maryland. A transferable security clearance or a background investigation leading to a clearance is required.

How to Apply

Interested individuals should send a resume to Carolyn Harves, Office of Commissioner Jaczko, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Mail Stop O-16C1, Washington, DC 20555 or cs2@nrc.gov no later than September 5, 2006.